FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ALBER RECEIVES AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Daniel Alber of Marshall is the recipient of the Society for the Advancement of Management's Outstanding Member award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The award is given to the member who has demonstrated superior leadership, communication, organization, and motivation skills as well as academic achievement.

A senior finance and management major, Alber is a 1987 graduate of McCulver North High School in Florissant, MO. He and his wife, Amanda, live in Marshall.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.
